To whom this may concern:

This is to endorse the application of MR. RONAN ZAIREL L. ALCORDO as an intern in your company. MR. ALCORDO is a Bachelor of Science in Computer Science student of the Department of Computer Science, College of Science, University of the Philippines Cebu.

The internship shall run from June 16, 2025, to July 25, 2025, where the student shall serve 240 hours of internship work. As an intern, the student is expected to render services related to software development, data science, and/or computing science research.

Furthermore, this certifies that MR. ALCORDO has completed the majority of the necessary requisites to start the internship program, in accordance with the Bachelor of Science in Computer Science curriculum of the Department. However, please be informed that the student is currently enrolled in CMSC 129 (Software Engineering Part 2) this 2nd Semester A.Y. 2024-2025, a prerequisite course for the internship. The internship will be officially credited only upon the student's successful completion of this course.
